

SPAN USA's 12th Annual
National Suicide Prevention
Awareness & Training Event
July 18-21, 2007 • Washington, DC

Building Hope for the Future

Join us in our nation's capital for three action-packed days dedicated to raising awareness, learning, remembering, and advocating for suicide prevention.

The 2007 Event will inform and inspire everyone involved with suicide prevention — survivors, clinicians, researchers, advocates and policy makers.

- Advocacy on Capitol Hill
- Awareness Event with Lifekeeper Memorial Quilt Display at World War II Memorial
- Education and training sessions on engaging the media, benefits of survivor support groups, the latest prevention research, policy updates & much more
- Discussions with leaders in the field, including Terry Cline, PhD, SAMHSA Administrator

Terry Cline, PhD
SAMHSA Administrator
